FRANKFORT, Ky., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Judge Ben G. Williams today ordered that seven members of the state text book commission be arrested without bail and brought in to court when they failed to appear to testify in a suit filed by Commissioner W. C. Bell against the commission.

Those ordered into court were R. R. Cummings, Miss Delma Evans, Frank W. McChesney, Robert J. Nichol, George Sapp, Samuel L. Walker and Mrs. George Smith. The commission members are expected to testify as to the procedure at the meeting at which the re-adoption of the textbooks was rejected, the legality of which is questioned by Bell in his suit.

TORTUGAS INDIANS IN WIERD OBSERVANCE FEAST OF VIRGIN OF GAUDALUPE

LAS CRUCES, N. M., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Dresses in ceremonial robes, fantastic headpieces and grotesque masks, participants in the weird observance of the Feast of the Virgin of Guadalupe began at sunrise today their ceremonies, a strange wedding of old Spanish Catholicism and the ancient Aztec religion.

A glaring cross of fire on Tortugas mountain last night flashed an invitation for all who saw to attend the feast in the tiny village of Tortugas, which continues until midnight tonight, while tom-toms beat their call to the "Olla," or promise dance.

The celebration opened with a procession in which the Indians carried a figure of the Virgin. Many of them carried or wore articles dating back to the Spanish conquest of New Mexico.

Throughout the day the dancing went on, with first one group and then another measuring their tread with the throbbing of the tom-toms. Continuing until after sunset.

The dances of the Tortugas Indians are perhaps the most spectacular of all the celebrations of New Mexico. In years gone by, it was the custom of the Indians to climb the mountainside on hands and knees with bundles of fagots tied to their backs with which to build the welcoming fire cross. Civilization in recent years has altered the BROWNSVILLE, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A federal grand jury convened here this week to investigate alleged irregularities in the Hidalgo county election of November, 1928, was dismissed yesterday by Federal Judge J. C. Hutcherson after it had reported a "no bill."

This action was taken by attorneys to mean a further investigation could be made if it should be decided such a move was necessary.

Scores of witnesses were called before the jury, asked to look into an election which drew the attention of state and national authorities and politicians. This faction alleged irregularities in Hidalgo by an independent republican faction which charged the election was to be "taken" by democratic and republican regulars. This faction asked President Coolidge to intervene, and the request was turned over to the department of justice. Another development in local

FAMOUS NORTHWEST TEXAS CATTLEMAN AND PIONEER SUCCUMBS TO INFLUENZA

TUCSON, Ariz., Dec. 12. (AP)—Colonel Charles Goodnight, 93, known throughout the west as "The Father of the Texas Panhandle," died today at his winter home here.

He was taken ill two weeks ago with influenza and because of his advanced years was unable to withstand the attack.

His widow, Mrs. Corinne Goodnight, and family were with him when the end came.

Colonel Goodnight was one of the most picturesque figures in the west and attracted national attention by domesticating buffalo from the great herd which he found on the Goodnight ranch when he moved into the Panhandle from Kansas in 1876. Over 200 head of buffalo are still on the ranch, which is now known as the Paloduro.

AMARILLO, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Colonel Chas. Goodnight, 93, known as "The Father of the Texas Panhandle," died today in Tucson, Ariz., where he was spending the winter, according to telegrams received here.

Colonel Goodnight's death followed an attack of influenza. His home was at Goodnight, near Clarendon, Texas. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Corinne Goodnight, whom he married about two years ago.

The body will be brought to Goodnight for burial.

COUPLE FLYING FROM CHICAGO TO DENTON IS HELD

DENTON, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A department of justice agent from Dallas was awaited here today to take into custody Vernon Ramsey and Evelyn Miller, who flew to Denton from Chicago.

A telegram to Police Chief Lee Knight here said Ramsey, a licensed pilot, and Miss Miller, student pilot, were to be held for the agent.

Ramsey said he did not know why he was held. He denied he and the girl had eloped or that he had a wife and child in Waukegan, Ill.

Ramsey had been taking up passengers and making aerial photographs.

Discussion Refused.

DALLAS, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Department of justice agents here today would not discuss the report that a man and woman were being held for them at Denton for alleged violation of the Mann Act.

Young Orphans Are Led to Safety While Building Is Afire

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Nine small children in the Seventh Street Orphans' Home here today joined hands and were led to safety by their attendant, Mrs. N. Jarvis, with the building afire under their nursery.

Mrs. Jarvis smelled smoke, sounded the alarm and for the time being feared escape would be cut off for the children, who were one to three years old.

But she lined her wards up as in play and danced them merrily through the smoke out on to a gallery and down a flight of steps.

Eighty-seven other inmates of the home were in school and undisturbed by the blaze.

PLAN SETTLE DIFFERENCES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—(AP)—A suggestion that the army and navy football controversy be settled by a commission comprising five former captains drawn from Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania and Georgetown, was made to President Hoover today by Representative Fish, Republican, New York, who called at the White House.

Disbar Lindsey

Bon B. Lindsey, internationally known lecturer, former juvenile court judge in Denver and advocate of "companionate marriage," was disbarred by the State Supreme Court. The disbarment proceedings against Lindsey were an outgrowth of his acceptance of money received from Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes and Samuel Untermyer, New York attorney, in connection with the settlement of a large fortune upon two children of Mrs. Stokes from the estate of their father, the late W. E. D. Stokes, New York millionaire hotel owner.

LACK OF FUNDS PREVENTS PLAN TAX REDUCTION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Undersecretary Mills said today insufficient funds would prevent the treasury from approving the suggestion by Senator Couzens, republican, Michigan for a reduction from 12 1/2 to 10 per cent in the capital gain tax although he, Mills, thought such a reduction would be the "right thing to do."

Mills indicated the treasury felt it had gone the limit in recommending a one per cent cut in individual and corporation income taxes for the calendar year 1929.

A resolution to authorize this reduction already has been passed by the house, approved by the senate finance committee and placed on the senate calendar for action.

In proposing this cut the treasury estimated there would be a surplus of $225,000,000 this year and $122,000,000 for the 1931 fiscal year.

The Couzens proposal, Mills said, would not become effective until the 1931 year and with only $122,000,000 surplus in sight such a reduction would be inopportune.

CHARLES GOODNIGHT

part in the development of the Lone Star state before his death. Chance brought Goodnight to Texas. Five years after his father died in 1841 his mother remarried and the family moved to Milam county. All of Texas then was subject to Indian raids; the first house in what now is the metropolis of Dallas had been built five years before; the Fort Worth military post was not established until three years later.

While still in his teens Goodnight began farming, but in 1858 he decided Texas was not big enough for him. With J. W. Sheek he started overland for California. At San Saba creek they stopped, having changed their opinions about Texas, and began raising cattle on shares. After a year's work the youngsters found they had made, as their share, $96, or $48 apiece. They had 32 calves worth $4 each. That was in 1857, but in 1858 their herd had increased to 4,000 head and they bought out their employer.

Guide and Scout
During the Civil war Goodnight was a guide and scout for a frontier regiment, and while he was absent marauding Indians and the elements took their toll of cattle. He soon formed a partnership with Oliver Loving, and driving a herd over what became known as the Loving Trail the partners sold several thousand cattle at Fort Sumner, N. M., for 8 cents a pound. The business was so lucrative they drove a second herd over the same trail that year, but on the third drive Indians attacked them and stampeded the cattle. Three hundred steers were lost, but the white man escaped.

A few days later, with one man, Loving went ahead of the herd to close a contract in Fort Sumner before the cattle arrived. Near what is now Eddy, N. M., he was attacked by a band of Indians and wounded in the arm. His companion went back to Goodnight for aid, and Loving was to remain on a creek bank. The rescue party could not find Loving. He was walked five miles north and had been picked up by another caravan. He died shortly afterward from his wound and exposure.

For three years more Goodnight drove cattle into New Mexico and sold them, surviving numerous brushes with Indians. In his last year on the trail, with John Chisum, he made $17,000, and in the same year, 1871, he married Mary Ann Dyer.

Success in Cattle Business
With his savings Goodnight went into the cattle raising business 40 miles from Trinidad, Colo., once more out of Texas, but the panic of 1873 swept away most of his property and he returned to the Texas panhandle with 1,800 cattle, the remnant of his herd. He spent the winter in Palo Duro canyon and the next in the Canadian river bottoms.

In 1877 he formed another partnership, with John G. Adair of Waltham, Ireland. Adair invested $372,000 in the business and Goodnight ran the ranch for one third of the profits. That partnership continued until 1888, and at one time the Adair-Goodnight combination owned 100,000 cattle. Ten years before severing his partnership with Adair, Goodnight had caught four buffalo calves. He crossed them with Polled Angus cows and produced what is known as the Catalo, an unusual beef animal as well as a museum specimen. It had 14 ribs instead of 13 usual for a cow.

March 31st, 1901
Goodnight, as he grew older, turned his business over to an adopted son, Clio Hubbard, and finally the ranch was sold but Hubbard remained manager.

Goodnight contended Indians were poor rifle shots. "I reckon I've been shot at and missed more times than any man living," but I wouldn't say so because nobody would believe me and I wouldn't blame 'em," he once said. "There is so much hot air about the pioneer days. It's a nuisance to be a frontiersman."

He had his own recipe for treating arrow wounds. Once a member of the trail driving expedition Goodnight led was shot in the back of the head. Goodnight pulled out the arrowhead, treated the wound and the man recovered.

"I put good cold mud on the wound," Goodnight said. "There is no better disinfectant."

Despite his many conflicts with Indians, Goodnight had only one notch on his gun, that notch represented a member of the Tonka tribe which held the belief, Goodnight declared, that eating human flesh would make them brave. Colonel Goodnight's first wife died four years ago. The Colonel celebrated his ninety-first birthday by marrying Miss Corinne Goodnight, of Butte, Mont., then 29 years old.

Other survivors of Col. Goodnight are Henry Taylor, mayor of Clarendon, a nephew, and Mrs. Annie Dyer Nunn and Mrs. Jack Rutherford of Amarillo, nieces.

LARGE FORCE ARMED GUARDS PATROLLING
WALLS BIG PRISON

faced with charges of murder, first degree. These men, he said, were implicated in a killing during the commission of a felony—attempts to escape from a prison. Conviction on this count, he said, meant death.

Fifteen to 20 convicts were in charge of the prison for more than five hours before the spectacular dash of the troopers at 5:30 p. m. saved the day.

Any possible ardor for further rioting was chilled by a night spent in a prison through which winter winds whistled. Glass in the cell block windows were shattered by bullets in the fighting.

Warden Jennings was captured about 11 o'clock in the morning when he went into the heart of the prison to investigate a report that "something was doing." Returning from the kitchen, he was met by a convict who showed a gun in his stomach and said "Do not move or say anything, Warden, or I will kill you."

Two other convicts quickly stepped to his side. The first convict then commanded "Just come with me, Warden. We want you to accompany us to the punishment gallery, and you will have to cover us, or we will kill you." Jennings went along.

Three other guards were captured in the punishment gallery. They were forced to release the most desperate inmates. The officers were handcuffed to each other.

Henry Sullivan and Steve Pawlak, leaders in the July riot, then took charge. Sullivan said to Jennings: "Warden, instruct the men out front (troopers, guards, police) to let us go out with you and these other officers, or we will kill you."

"They issued instructions," said the warden, "simply telling the men in front to open the doors and to keep all officers and guards out of the way as they marched out with us as their prisoners. They handcuffed us in pairs and said: 'Warden, we intend to put a convict behind every two keepers. He has a gun and will shoot his part at the first indication of treachery. You will march out with us.'"

"We plan to seize enough automobiles from the streets of Auburn to provide for us all. If you play fair with us, we will take you all out into the country and dump you alive. If we die, you die."

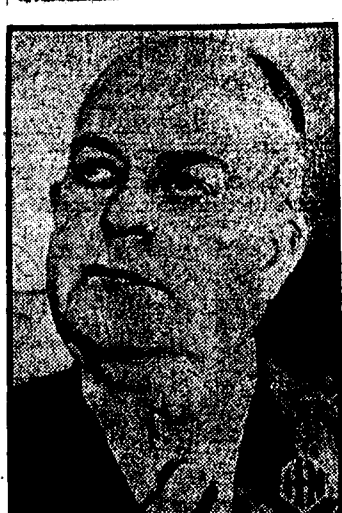

Tide is turned.

Here is the warden's account of the turn of the tide in the battle: "We got word that the men in front had some plan of meeting their (the convicts) wishes. They opened the doors so they could enter the main hall and have an unobstructed view to the street."

"Thereupon, doors of the main hall were opened from both north and south wings, and we all went into that hall. Suddenly a state trooper stepped into full range of their guns and threw a gas bomb. More followed."

"The bomb was a signal for a general melee. The men were shot on all sides. Some of the convicts realized they had been tricked and ran back into the south wing hall, while others ran into the north; but they turned on us and fired at

WORKING OUT PLANS GREAT
CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING
BODY TO HANDLE COTTON

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 12.—(AP)—Ground work laid, a delegation of six men today began the task of fashioning the structure of what is planned to be the largest co-operative marketing organization ever attempted—a 30,000,000 central agency to finance the handling of cotton in 15 southern and western states.

Decision to create the centralized organization was reached late yesterday at a conference here between members of the federal farm board and directors of co-operative and growers' associations in Cotton Belt States of the south and west.

A general committee of 21 will serve as the directorate of the agency which must be in operation and its first general meeting held prior to July 1.

With support of the farm board, the organization contemplates a loan fund for its stock holding members or their subsidiaries to finance the movement of crops to market, or "any proper activity necessary to the free delivery, handling or marketing of cotton or cotton seed or their by-products."

The agency will come into existence through the transforming of the American Cotton Growers

Religion Has Somewhat to Say On Day's Industrial Problem

Timeliness of Sunday School Lesson Which Many Millions Will Study — Christianity's word to Employer and to Employed.

BY WILLIAM T. ELLIS

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS.
I recently found myself an involuntary listener to a rather loud conversation, between three elderly men, evidently employers. They were out to "break" labor unions, and to show the workingman, and without any trace of concern for human values or for human responsibility, they voiced a state of mind that was really medieval. The state of mind that caused the Russian revolution.

Though they had neither knowledge nor imagination to enable them to perceive it, those three men better friends of Bolshevism than any of the alien soap-box orators in Union Square, New York. Whatever they may be in their private lives, these men are sheer exploitationists and autocrats, enemies of democracy, of brotherhood and of applied Christianity. They belong, mentally and socially, back in the dark ages.

Fortunately they are not representative of most employers. Not coercion, but co-operation, is the modern mood. The bigger the business man today, the likelier he is to conduct his business in a spirit of mutual responsibility. Interdependence is the keynote of the most successful modern industries, and workers are recognized as human beings, and not as mere chattels or machines.

A New Idea That Is Old.
This "new spirit in industry" is as old as the Bible. Consider the three quotations which are the assigned Sunday school lesson—a lesson better friends of Bolshevism than any of the alien soap-box orators in Union Square, New York. It seems Providential that this theme should confront the Sunday schools of the land just at a time when the labor question is an acute issue before government and in popular thought. Here are the clear-cut and explicit words from Holy Writ:

"Thou shalt not oppress a hired servant that is poor and needy, neither he be of thy brethren, or thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates; at his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor and setteth his heart upon it; lest he cry against thee unto the Lord, and be sin unto thee."

"Servants be obedient to them that are your masters according to the Lord, as unto Christ; Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart: With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. And ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him." There respect of persons that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; that they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate: Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life."

A World-Wide Problem.
That Scriptural teaching holds good around the world; and in all the multifarious phases of the vexing industrial problem.
True, it is more individualistic than some persons would like. The Bible has a way of treating the largest questions in terms of personal units. Once and once only the New Testament records a communal experiment of Christians faithfulness makes hard reading for every slacker. We deeply need, in highest and lowest posts, industry that is not through and through with Christian integrity. Kipling voices the day's plaint:

"From forge and farm and mine and bench,
Deck, altar, outpost lone—
Mill, school, battalion, counter trench,
Rail, senate, sheepfold, throne—
Creation's cry goes up on high
From age to cheated age:
'Send us the men who do the work
For which they draw the wage.'"

"When through the Gates of Stress and Strain
Comes forth the vast Event—
The simple, sheer, sufficing, sane
Result of labour spent—
They that have wrought the end
Unthought.
Be neither saint nor sage,
But men who merely did the work
For which they drew the wage."

Bolshevism or Brotherhood?
Many persons, familiar with Old World conditions, contend that civilization is just now confronted with the alternatives of Communism versus Capitalism. There are grave reasons for holding this belief. Beseath that struggle, however, lies the deeper one of Bolshevism versus Brotherhood.

If the essentially Christian spirit of brotherhood can be made to dominate industry, the menace of Bolshevism will be dissipated. When the worker does his work in the fear of God, and in a spirit of good will and fraternity toward his employer; and when the employer, knowing himself answerable to God and to society, acts primarily from a sense of concern for the human factors involved in his business, then we shall have industrial peace and enduring prosperity.

There are hundreds of employers, at this present hour, who are running their business at a loss in order to provide work for their employees. Others make places for men and women needing work. And there are other hundreds, or thousands, of workers who are putting the last ounce of their energy into their task to try to keep the firm on its feet in a difficult time. Such as these have caught the Christian gleam and are "with good will doing service."

operative, although they were on record as approving its ideal.
Warehouse men perfected their own organization here yesterday, and, after electing officers and naming themselves the Wool and Mohair Warehouse Association of Texas, went on record as believing wool and mohair warehouses "have been in the past and still are the most practical and feasible selling agency."

The resolution said the warehouse association endorsed the "conscientious efforts being made by the federal farm board and the National Wool Marketing Association to improve the situation in our market," and proposed to make immediate efforts to arrive at a plan acceptable to all parties.

Newspaper Feature Bureau Makes Survey-Estimate of Population of Corsicana

The population of Corsicana within municipal limits at the opening of 1930 is 21,576 compared with 11,356 in 1920, an increase of 90.0 per cent, according to a survey-estimate issued by the Newspaper Feature Bureau. The survey is based on excess of births over deaths in the city since 1920, the increase in youth of school age, the increase in domestic water services and other factors having a bearing on population.

It is estimated that the 1930 population of Corsicana and its suburbs is in excess of 30,000.

An interesting feature of the characteristics of the population is that females outnumber males, 11,029 to 10,547.

Persons over 21, not all of whom however are qualified voters, number 12,865 with females outnumbering males over 200.

Workers for gain—the city's bread-winners—number 8,255 of whom 6,933 are males.

There are 5,292 families in the city, compared with 2,785 in 1920. The detailed characteristics of the Corsicana population, in which the present figures are compared with those of the census of 1920, follows:

	1920	1930
Population	11,356	21,576
Males	5,551	10,547
Females	5,805	11,029
Persons over 21	6,771	12,865
Males	3,331	6,329
Females	3,440	6,536
Persons over 10	9,150	17,385
Males	4,480	8,474
Females	4,670	8,911
Workers for gain	4,871	8,255
Males	3,649	6,933
Females	1,222	2,322
Families	2,785	5,292

NFB Opening of 1930 population survey-estimate for United States shows that more than one million inhabitants show large gains but no change in their relative ranking as compared with one year ago. The figures with those of the 1920 census, follow:

	1920 P.	1930 P.	Gain
New York	5,620,048	6,631,658	18.0
Chicago	2,701,705	3,296,080	22.0
Philadelphia	1,233,778	1,570,287	19.0
Detroit	983,673	1,448,508	37.0
Los Angeles	576,873	1,470,516	155.0
Cleveland	796,841	1,328,046	66.7

Metropolitan Pittsburgh is not included, as the plan for the greater city is in litigation. If it finally goes through it is estimated the 1930 population will be 1,505,976, compared with 1,185,508 in 1920. Only Detroit's continued increases are indicated for the southern steel and textile cities and other industrial centers.

The most amazing record of growth is that of Los Angeles, whose estimated population within municipal limits in 1930 is 1,470,516, an increase of 155.0 per cent since 1920. Only Detroit's continued industrial expansion prevented the southern California city from becoming the fourth city on the eve of the decennial census. The estimated Cleveland population of 1,328,046 shows the wonderful growth of that mid-western center of industry.

TURKEYS MOVING TO MARKETS FOR CHRISTMAS TRADE

Large shipments of turkeys are being made out of Corsicana for the Christmas market and many birds have been sold in Navarro county during the past several days. The Christmas shipments in carload lots are nearing the close, and after this week shipments closer to the local market and in smaller quantities.

The prices for turkeys this year have been somewhat lower than for the past several years, due in a large measure to the increased number of birds raised in the United States. The Texas turkey crop is reported about normal but an increase of about ten per cent is reported for the entire United States. The prices paid for turkeys here ranged around 17 cents per pound.

Last year the following participated: the Culture Club, the Junior Culture Club, the Y. M. B. L. Delphian Club, Mother's Study Circle, Star Theatre, Boy Scouts, the mayor and city manager. Rev. M. L. Fuller, who will bring the closing address, is known as a leader of men and a speaker of power. Men of the churches, please set aside this much of your time to come aside for the fine fellowship with your fellows of the association, the inspiration of the addresses and the strength that comes from walking on God.

POLICE PREVENT CLASH BETWEEN MINERS THURSDAY

AUBURN, Ill., Dec. 12.—(P)—Action of state highway police and deputy sheriffs at the Panther Creek mine No. 1 today prevented clashes between united mine workers and strikers of the National Miners' Union.

Members of the National Miners' Union, a rival faction which seeks to shut down all Illinois mines, announced they would picket the Panther Creek mine to prevent 750 men employed there from working.

Authorities said both factions were armed. State police and deputy sheriffs patrolled the highway in the vicinity and as the strikers drove up in automobiles, they were ordered to keep moving. The Panther Creek employees went to work unmolested.

and you have found the way to make your flock pay you real profit.

There's a lot of truth in the old saying that any old hen will lay in the Spring and early Summer, but the hen that takes to the NEST in winter when egg prices are high makes the most profit. The most essential element in getting winter eggs is "feeding the proper kind of feed."

Interesting History Of Design for 1929 Christmas Seals

When the people of Texas this season purchase a supply of Christmas seals in the sale sponsored by the Texas Public Health Association, they will observe on each seal a design fashioned by a good engraver of the old school.

The engraver is John W. Evans, 74 years old, of Baldwin, Long Island. His design appears on 32,000,000 seals which are being offered the people of Texas this Christmas to help stamp out tuberculosis. The seal shows a medieval bell-ringer pulling the rope which sends "health greetings" out to the world.

When it was desired to obtain a new idea for the Christmas seal sale this year, Evans was found at his bench still at work as he was 50 years ago, producing reproductions of fine works of art such as he did for the Century Magazine until the process was abandoned in 1900.

The idea of the bell-ringer was utilized as expressive of seasonal health greetings. The original painting was photographed on a block of wood much larger than the size of the finished product. Evans then tooled the wood to represent the lines and shadows desired, and the proof of this cut was used to make plates from which the seals were actually printed.

SUIT FOR $750,000.00 IS FILED BY FORMER SECRETARY OIL MAGNATE AGAINST HIS WIFE

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—(P)—Charges there was a conspiracy involving the divorce of Col. Henry H. Rogers, a Standard Oil magnate, and his subsequent marriage made in a suit filed by Edward E. Kern, who was dismissed as the Colonel's secretary. He seeks $750,000 from the Colonel's bride and two of her relatives.

The Colonel's first wife, Mrs. Mary Benjamin Rogers, obtained a divorce in Holland last summer. Colonel Rogers soon after was married in Paris to Margit Barbois, widow of a French millionaire, former American commissioner to the International Chamber of Commerce.

Count Andre and Countess Marie Zichy, cousins of the present Mrs. Rogers, are defendants with her in the suit.

Declaring his dismissal was "malicious," Kern said in his petition "it was done among other reasons to obtain revenge upon the plaintiff because the plaintiff in the course of his employment with Henry H. Rogers, and under specific orders of Mr. Rogers, had investigated and obtained information concerning the defendant's (Margit Barbois Von Braun Rogers) birth, family, social standing, previous history and mode of living and had communicated to Henry H. Rogers the result of the investigation."

Kern gave notice he would ask for examination of Mrs. Rogers and the Zichys before trial. One of the questions on which the examination is based is:

"Whether or not, from December, 1928, until June, 1929, the defendants and each of them represented to Henry H. Rogers that the defendant Rogers (then known as Daisy Von Braun Miles) was a member of the Hapsburg family, to wit, an illegitimate daughter of Franz Josef, emperor of Austria, and represented to Henry H. Rogers that the defendant Rogers received an income and other emoluments from the Hapsburgs."

FLAVOR OF DE LUXE FRUIT CAKE KNOWN IN DISTANT PLACES BUSY SEASON AT LOCAL PLANT; TONS DELICACY NOW BEING SHIPPED

Corsicana and Navarro county are famous for many things, some of them wonderfully good, and some not so good, not mentioning the county's highway system. The first oil field west of the Mississippi river was developed in Corsicana, the first oil refinery also followed for the same territory, and the Corsicana team of the Texas league established a record for successive wins games won that has never been broken. Such a list could be strung out into a most interesting array of records and facts. But this isn't a story of things that have been or things that were, but one thing that has ever occurred or that has ever originated in Corsicana, perhaps, has given this city as much and as world-wide constructive publicity as the famous "DeLuxe Fruit Cake," made by the DeLuxe Fruit Cake company, an offshoot of the Collins Street Bakery, both plants being owned and managed by McElwee and Weidemann. This product, a real delicacy and a wonderful creation of the culinary art, is known in every state of the United States and far beyond the borders of the nation.

At this season of the year, especially, the offices and plant of the DeLuxe Fruit Cake company is a veritable beehive of industry, as this Christmas delicacy is made and shipped out in hundreds of tons from the bakery at the corner of Main street and Sixth avenue. One shipment alone bore postage in excess of $200, and this was not the largest shipment made by the company, but the farthest away from Corsicana. This shipment of 400 three-pound cakes in pretty Christmas boxes was made for a large Los Angeles concern, with practically all the cakes going to individuals in that state, the golden state, where they are supposed to have the best of everything or at least know what is best.

Many Large Orders
A Houston oil well machinery concern ordered 450 three-pound cakes, the greater part of these going to parties in Texas, while one of the large life insurance companies of Texas made a repeat order for the past several years of some four hundred cakes. These are some of the large annual repeat orders and there are many others, almost as large, these business concerns paying their season's obligations or rather imparting their Christmas spirit in this manner, sending their cards, the name and addresses of those to whom they desire the great industry in this state each year orders many cakes sent out for him, and this year his order has almost doubled previous years, numbering several hundred cakes. Then there are the local business houses, banks and individuals who remember their friends in this way, so it is not a case of a prophet being without honor in his own country. Besides buying these cakes all the year, these Corsicana people are more and more coming to send them to their friends and relatives at this glad Christmas season.

Recipients Converted.
But perhaps the most interesting feature is that those individuals who have been recipients of these cakes in past years as Christmas presents from someone else are themselves ordering for their own use and ordering cakes sent to their friends—probably the greatest test of the real goodness of these famous fruit cakes. An instance of the pleased customer was the DeLuxe Fruit Cake company recently through the Corsicana chamber of commerce. A pleased customer of other years now residing in Memphis, Tenn., asked the Chamber of Commerce to put her in touch with the makers of the cakes. She stated that she had been a resident of Pine Bluff, Ark., and that she had purchased one of the cakes from her grocer there, giving his name. Of course other purchases followed. She then moved to Memphis and was unable to find the DeLuxe fruit cake there, and her old grocer had gone out of business. She decided that she must get in touch with the makers. She did and is now enjoying her favorite delicacy again.

Acquaintance Wide
Perhaps no man in the United States is better known among theatrical, circus, carnival and baseball and other people of the amusement and sporting world than Tom McElwee. It is a well known fact that these people are everywhere—having access to and partaking of the best that the entire world affords. And practically every celebrity of the amusement and sporting world are ardent DeLuxe fruit cake fans. Judge Chesney M. Landis, known as the star of organized baseball, known and enjoys DeLuxe fruit cake and tells the world about it: Ty Cobb, Barney Dreyfus, John McGraw, Connie Mack, Jim Corbett and others are in the same class, many of them getting their first taste of this wonderful product of a Corsicana bakery through the courtesy of the late lamented Jack Foley, president of the Texas league and himself a friend to many of the celebrities.

Circus Folk Patrons
Orders arrive throughout the year from theatrical and circus people for fruit cakes to be sent to them as they travel the world over, and at Christmas time these orders literally pour in. So without doubt Corsicana is today receiving more real constructive publicity disagree with me. I had a lot of trouble with my kidneys, and my back hurt nearly all the time. I was constantly taking medicine for inactive liver and constipation, and would sometimes get so dizzy I'd have to hold to something to keep from falling. My blood seemed thin, I suffered terrible headaches and was so nervous I could hardly sleep. "Sargon is the first and only medicine I found that gave me lasting relief. My appetite is splendid and everything agrees with me. Sargon Pills rid me of biliousness and constipation entirely. I'm no longer nervous, sleep fine and my color is clear and healthy. I haven't one of my old troubles left and feel like a new woman. I can now understand why so many praise Sargon."—Mrs. C. E. Wood, 2510 Market St., Ft. Worth. McPherson Drug Co., Agents.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors, especially Mr. Jesse Thomas and Mrs. Vera Sherod for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our little darling, Frances Church. We also appreciate the many beautiful floral offerings. Sincerely, ity by reason of the making and shipping out of these delicious cakes in two, three and five pound sizes than from any other single reason. The world-wide sale of the product of this local company is gradually causing the plant and office space to be enlarged until three large buildings and part of another is utilized, while the ingredients, bought from the four corners of the earth in carload lots are kept in a local storage plant. W. T. (Tom) McElwee and A. (Gus) Weidemann established the Collins Street Bakery in 1889 but it was not until 1910 that the manufacture of the DeLuxe fruit cake was started and only five years ago were the fancy Christmas gift packages inaugurated. Both these Corsicana citizens are justly proud of their product in all lines of endeavor.

NEW ORGANIZATION COTTON INDUSTRY OUTLINED TUESDAY

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Initial steps of a program which may revolutionize the cotton industry in America were outlined today by three members of the federal farm board before they went into executive session with representatives of cotton from over the United States.

Alexander Legge, chairman of the board; Jas. C. Stone and Carl Williams were present and discussed "the present and future conditions and analyzing marketing conditions" with 150 leaders of the industry. Establishment of a centralized co-operative marketing organization, embracing all local and state co-operatives and controlled by the federal government is the plan of the meeting. The cotton leaders expect the government to furnish the money to establish the organization at an amount varying from $10,000,000 to $40,000,000. The organization would eventually be sold back to the cotton growers in form of stock issued by the government. The farm board would indirectly control the policies.

Body of Man Is Found After Shot Fired at Prowler

DALLAS, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Body of a man found in an alley here today was identified as police records as that of Floyd Calvin Stanley. The body was found a short distance from a drug store where the proprietor, E. R. Springer, told police he had shot at one of two men he had found in the store last night. The body bore a small bullet wound in the left breast. No trace was found of the second man. Springer said the men had fled when he fired, and one of them cried out he had been wounded. They left an automobile in front of the pharmacy.

Suggest Cotton Loans Should be Slowly Raised

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Gradual extension to 20 cents a pound of loans on cotton was suggested to the federal farm board today in a telegram sent by five senators to Carl Williams, cotton's representative on the board, who is attending a meeting of co-operatives at Memphis, Tenn. The present maximum is 16 cents. The telegram urged that the suggestion, which was made recently to Williams, Chairman Legge, and other members of the board, be brought before the meeting. "This would be a fairly good loan," the telegram said, "and would immediately relieve to a great extent the present distressing conditions and would certainly increase the membership in the cooperative associations. We believe that the announcement of a loan of 20 cents per pound would actually result in fewer loans and expenditure of less money by the government." It was signed by Senators Townsend, Delaware and Walcott, Connecticut; Republicans; Smith, South Carolina; Brock, Tennessee, and Heflin, Alabama. Democrats. Four of the five are members of a senate agriculture sub-committee appointed to investigate speculation on cotton exchanges.

Mexia Hi School Honor Roll Sets Record For Term

MEXIA, Dec. 12.—(Sp.)—In spite of the rigid requirements, the Mexia high school has an honor roll for the second six-weeks period of school of 34, the largest number in history of the institution. Clara Crommons was the ranking student for the period, with Nannie Lee Randolph and Nannie Simmons second. Girls outnumbered boys 21 to 18.

The Mexia high school awards a literary letter for those making the honor roll the first five times, and sweaters are given these students the same as those which excel in football or other athletics.

MILK TRUCK LINE TEAGUE TO MEXIA HAS BEEN STARTED

MEXIA, Dec. 12.—(Sp.)—S. M. Corley, dairymen of Teague, has started a milk truck line from Teague to Mexia, connecting with the Mexia Chamber of Commerce free truck line to the Borden Company plant at Waco. Mr. Corley is bringing his own dairy's output and that of others for shipment to Waco.

Waco prices are paid 7 c. b. the milk platform, the local chamber of commerce absorbing the truck line's cost as a contribution to dairy development here.

Efforts are being made to start a line from Wortham to Mexia, and another from Groesbeck to Mexia.

Farmers have been slow to take up dairying, but increase in milk offered the line is steady.

VAN ZANDT COUNTY LAND OWNER "GOOSE KING OF WORLD"

WILLS POINT, Dec. 12.—(Sp.)—I. L. Brin, large land owner in Van Zandt and Kaufman counties, is thought to be entitled to the honor of being the "goose king" of the world. He owns about 1,500 geese there being 500 of them on one farm.

Mr. Brin keeps the geese on his farms to assist in keeping down grass in cotton and also finds them profitable for their increase and feathers. He lets them gather their living from the farms except for a little while in the winter when he finds it necessary to feed them a little grain.

These geese running in the cotton bite the grass off to the ground and if the dirt is loose they pull up many bunches by the roots. It has been found that by keeping the grass bit down short it will soon die. Two years of this will entirely kill the roots and stop the growth.

The tenants on the farm are pleased to co-operate in handling the geese as it makes the matter of cultivating the crop easier and increases the yield. They gather the eggs and either place them under the mother geese for incubation or take them to the hatchery. Mr. Brin was the first party in this section to try artificial incubation of goose eggs.

HEADQUARTERS HOME

Floor plans for the new home of the Texas State Teachers' association in Fort Worth were approved, and the architect was authorized to complete general plans and specifications for the new building, a meeting of the building committee held in Fort Worth Wednesday night, according to an announcement made today by H. D. Millers, president of the association.

In the first floor will be housed offices of the general secretary; and advertising manager and offices for their stenographers; a large library and executive committee room; and a receiving room to be used for unpacking shipments of stationery, etc.

The second floor will contain an office for the superintendent of records; rest rooms; a fireproof room; a machine room in which memorabilia and duplicating machines will be contained; a typewriting room; and a large room to be divided up into offices as they are needed in the future.

W. G. Clarkson, formerly of Corsicana, is the architect.

BROWNSVILLE HIGH
EAGLES FACE PROBE
PLAYER ELIGIBILITY

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Brownsville high school Eagles, champions of the local district No. 1 in the interscholastic football league, face possible expulsion as league members as the result of orders from Roy E. Henderson, director of the league, that the football situation revolving around claims of Brownsville's ineligibility be cleaned up.

District Chairman H. H. Hutto of Harlandale has been asked by Henderson to conduct an investigation of charges that at least one Brownsville player is over age and so ineligible. Mr. Hutto talked to Mr. Henderson concerning the Brownsville case, and today was awaiting a letter from the state league chairman, formally directing the investigation.

"If an investigation of the entire district," the "Light" asked Mr. Hutto.

"The chairman replied, 'Only Brownsville's team. You might say only of a certain player on the Brownsville team.'"

"The player until Henderson's outline of the matter to be investigated had been presented. However, it was reported that Tierney, in end, who played in two of Brownsville's early district games and then was kept out of action, is the boy specifically mentioned in

HOOVER FINDING SELECTION OF TWO DEMOCRATS FOR I. C.
COMMISSION NO EASY TASK

BY JAMES L. WEST,
Associated Press Staff Writer.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—(AP)—President Hoover is finding selection of two democrats as members of the Interstate Commerce commission anything but an easy task.

While the consensus of those who are close to the White House is that Joseph E. Eastman of Boston will be reappointed, strong opposing influences are at work, these including some leaders of the republican party as well as railroad interests.

The chief executive is fully aware that should he remove Mr. Eastman from the commission his appointment would face formidable opposition in the senate, especially from the republican independents of the northwest who hold the balance of power.

One basis for opposition to the Boston democrat is that he favors government operation of the carriers and frequently disagrees with his colleagues on matters of major policy. However, close friends of the president say he holds strongly to the opinion that dissenters perform an extremely useful function in federal affairs.

It seems to be fairly well established that Richard V. Taylor of Mobile, Alabama, will not be reappointed.

JAPANESE NAVAL POLICY OUTLINED
AS DEFENSE ONLY

DELEGATION FROM JAPAN
TO LONDON NAVAL CONFERENCE REACHES SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Outlining Japan's policy for the coming naval disarmament conference in London as a "minimum defense strength" standard, Reijiro Wakatsuki, head of the Japanese delegation to the conference, declared here today his country proposed "no menace to anyone, and we want none to be a menace to our country." Wakatsuki spoke at a luncheon tendered the delegation by the Japan society and the Seattle chamber of commerce.

Admiral Takeshi Takarabe of the imperial Japanese navy, also a delegate, briefly reviewed the cordial relations which have existed between the United States and Japan and expressed hope the London conference would prove beneficial.

The delegation arrived here yesterday from Japan, after a brief stop at Victoria, B. C. They will proceed eastward tonight.

Wakatsuki lauded the Kellogg pact, declaring reduction rather than limitation of armament is what should be the natural outcome of the agreement.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exists, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! how dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childhood, no faith, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished. Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus. The most real things in the world are those that neither children nor men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can conceive or imagine all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world. You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernal beauty and glory beyond. It is all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood. (Originally printed September 21, 1897, in the New York Sun.)

STATE HOME WAS UNABLE TO STOP TIGERS MARCHES

TEAM BATTLED ON EVEN TERMS DURING FIRST HALF SCORE 15 TO 0

BY PAUL MOORE.

Employing a bewildering and relentless running attack that marched down the field for long gains in the second half, the Corsicana Tigers crashed over to a 15-0 victory over the State Home Lads at Tiger Field Tuesday afternoon before a fair-sized crowd of spectators in the Charity contest.

During the first half, the game was a struggle, with the Corsicana Tigers and the State Home Lads held the Tigers scoreless, but in the third period, the Tigers, featuring the plunging and running of John and Dee Newland and Robert Wilson, the great passing and punting of Clarke, the defensive playing of Robert Wilson, and the charging Tiger line, swept down the field for a couple of touchdowns in sustaining their lead.

The first touchdown came in the third period after a 63-yard march and the touchdown in the fourth period came after a 69-yard march. The Tiger team clicked smoothly and with precision, flanking one of the best games the boys have played this season. The State Home played hard and tackled hard, but could not match the power of the class A club, and went down fighting, with colors flying. It was a real contest, and a number of fans were heard to remark that had the Tigers played the same brand of football against Waco, Nov. 1, a Corsicana victory would have resulted.

In making first downs, the Tigers registered 22 and State Home made 7.

L. Knott, bruising and speedy and elusive fullback, the state champion, lived up to his reputation as a ball-carrier de luxe and on numerous occasions, circled the Tiger ends behind splendid interference for consistent and long gains, and on several occasions, cut back through the line, dart by would-be tacklers, and sprint down the field. Sensational and true tackles by Robert Wilson, safety man for the Tigers, kept Knott from running for touchdowns on no less than three occasions.

State Home Fight.

About the middle of the first period, it looked as if the Corsicana Tigers would score a touchdown. The ball had been advanced deep into the Lads' territory, but the fighting green wave dug cleats into the turf and turned back the blue surge on the Lads' 4-yard line.

It was a great combat, fraught with sensational plays and tackles. Late in the game, Knott apparently tired from the carrying of the burden of the State Home thrusts and showed the effects of the vicious tackling of Stamps, Ross, Young, Wilson and others.

Bill Davenport played a good game, but his ball carrying did not come up to that of Knott and his long sweeping end runs frequently were futile as a swarm of Tigers bottled him after chases across the field.

The bands furnished music for this Charity contest. The pep squad also were in action and plenty of cheering was given.

Tiger Advances.

Late in the game, the charging of the Tiger forward wall began telling on the State Home Lads, and the lighter line of the district B champions, was forced slowly backward, although fighting desperately, while John Newland, Dee Newland, Clarke, Wilson and others drove through gaping holes for gains.

John Newland played the greatest game of his career, directing the play like a veteran and carrying the ball in a spectacular manner, ducking and dashing through the line consistently.

The proceeds from the game is to be divided as follows:

Fifty percent to the United Charity and the remaining divided equally between the State Home and the Tigers.

The State Home club was attracted in the new uniforms purchased by the Lions club and presented a snappy appearance. The Tigers were their blue jerseys.

Hot weather Tuesday afternoon visibly affected both clubs and frequent timeouts were called.

Bill Stamps, prominent candidate for all-state honors at guard position, was injured late in the game when he dived into a bucket on the sidelines. It is not known whether the injury is serious.

Each boy who appeared in the two games played good games and the battle was entirely different from the majority of post-season games due to the intense rivalry existing between these two Corsicana clubs and both gave their best efforts to win.

All of the functions of life are not pleasant to consider. Perhaps this is why some mothers refuse to think that such symptoms as restless sleep, loss of flesh, lack of appetite or itching nose and fingers in their children, can be caused by round or pin worms. NINETEEN TEAMS ENTERED IN LOCAL BASKETBALL MEET

With nineteen teams entered in the annual Y. M. C. A. Basketball Tournament for Class B schools in Navarro county, plans are being completed for staging the annual affair on the local Y. M. C. A. court Friday and Saturday of this week.

According to present plans, the tournament will begin at noon Friday and continue until the winner has been decided as a result of the final game Saturday night. With nineteen teams entered, the largest in the history of the tournament, it will be necessary for one or more games during the afternoon to complete the first round.

Saturday morning afternoon will be devoted to running off the quarter and semi-final contests. Saturday night, first, second and third place winners will be decided. The contest for the championship will meet the Bardwell cagers, champions of Ellis county school teams for several years, as an added attraction.

In the tournament played last year, Providence won first place. Rural Shade second and Rice third. All three of these winners are entered in the tournament this year, but only one of the three are expected to make a successful fight for a "money place." Rice is doing to be the strongest team in the county and are favorites to cop the championship.

C. A. drawing for places in the tournament will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A., and all teams are requested to have a representative present.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR COUNTY MEET BASKETBALL TEAMS

LARGEST NUMBER OF TEAMS
EVER ENTERED TO START
COMPETITION FRIDAY

With the largest number of teams entered in the history of the tournament, the Y. M. C. A. third annual Invitational Tournament for Class B Schools in Navarro County is scheduled to get under way on the Y court Friday at noon. Nineteen teams have entered, thus necessitating at least two more games for Friday afternoon and evening, with the team drawing number one position playing five games in the two days, in the event it reaches the finals.

All winners of last year's loving cups for first, second and third places are entered to defend their laurels, but only one team of the trio is expected to remain in the select circle. Rice, last year's third place winner, being given a great chance to win the first place cup by close observers of basketball in the county. Providence and Rural Shade, winners of first and second places, respectively, last season, were practically wrecked last spring by graduation and have only one or two veterans reporting for the team.

Drawing for places will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock and each team entered is requested to have a representative present. Immediately following the drawing, play will begin.

The winner of first place, in addition to the loving cup, will be presented with gold basketballs as individual trophies immediately after the final game Saturday night. Second and third place teams will be given cups.

Following is the official list of teams entered as announced by the Y. M. C. A. physical director of the Y and sponsor of the tournament: Zion's Rest, Long Prairie, McCord, Blooming Grove, Bryan, Barry, Union high school, Elmhouse, Rice, Chatfield, Montford, Mildred, Providence, Navarro, Rural Shade, Currie, Purdon, Purley and I. O. O. F. Home.

Admission to the games will be five cents for games played Friday, Saturday morning and afternoon, and on Saturday night, making a total of seventy-five cents for all games.

As an added attraction, the Corsicana Y. M. C. A. Triangles will play the Bradwell Cats, champions of Ellis county interscholastic league for several years, Saturday evening between the third place game and the final contest.

Immediately following the close of the tournament, the three teams winning places will be awarded cups, and the first place winner cup and individual trophies.

More Traps Provided
Annual Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 12.—(AP)—Golfers who stray from the straight and narrow during the ninth annual Texas Open tournament here, Jan. 30 to Feb. 2, will have to dig their way out.

Five hundred yards of new sand has been ordered for the traps at Brackenridge Park, where the meet will be held. The San Antonio river, which meanders through the course, will offer plenty of water hazards.

Roaming the Realm of County Sports

By DELMORE OLSEN.

The third annual Y. M. C. A. Invitational Basketball Tournament for Class B schools in Navarro county is to be staged on the Y. M. C. A. court Friday and Saturday. With nineteen teams entered, the largest in the history of the tournament, play will be fast and furious. At least three more games will be needed during the two days than in times past.

All boys and extra games will be played during the elimination and quarter final round, leaving four teams in the running for the semi-finals Saturday afternoon. A nine-team tournament is rather difficult to manage, but will put only one team at a great disadvantage. The team that draws the inside position as number one will be forced to play five games if it goes into the finals.

Last year, Providence won the championship by whipping each team pitted against them by large scores. This season, it seems like Rice will do all the winning and be the favorite to win the championship, if the team does not become careless and let some team slip up on them and eliminate them from the championship picture.

Y Triangles Win Over New Kerens Team on Y Court

Playing a sluggish brand of basketball Monday evening, the Y. M. C. A. Triangles defeated the newly organized Kerens Independents 33-14 on the Y court. Only at times during the game did the local Independents show anything like their customary class of cage art, and they were completely out of their offensive when failing to check the ball off the boards.

Tyner and Eady turned in great games at guard posts for the Triangles, and their work partly offset the dismal showing by the front line men and Byrd and Irwin, forwards, showed up well at breaking up passes but could not "get going" on goal tending.

Although capturing high point honors in the contest, Green, Triangles center, failed to impress spectators with his playing. The Kerens team although unused to an indoor court, rallied after their first few minutes and held their opponents well in check. Bobbitt, forward, played a neat game and turned in four field goals for his efforts during the contest. Ellis and Ferris, guards, smothered the Kerens offense time after time by alert checking the ball off the boards.

Officials—Referee, G. Pollard; timekeeper, R. Pollard; scorer, Olsen.

We still remember during the 1928 interscholastic league tourney, the semi-final game between Providence and Purdon in which the highly primed Purdon team fought the Providence quint to a fare you well and only managed to defeat in an extra period, 27-28.

The tournament this year promises to be one of the best ever held, with no team standing out head and shoulders above the rest. With all due respect, credit, or what have you, to the Rice team, we do not think it is as much better than the general run of teams as the great Providence quint of 1928-29.

Delving into the history of the tournament, we find that Providence won the second place cup in 1928, first place last year. With Rural Shade, the process was reversed, first in 1928 and second the following year. The Junior High school won third place honors in 1928 and Rice third last year.

There is no immediate danger of one team winning the cup for good, as none have won the same cup two years in succession. According to the rules of the tournament when first started, in order that one quint might lay claim to permanent possession of a cup, it must have been won three years in succession.

Drawing for places will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock, all coaches or representatives of the team are requested to be present and draw for the team. No protests will be allowed after the tournament play starts, so if any coach in the county has a just claim against any player entered, better lodge the protest now.

It is not expected that any players in the tourney will be kicked out, but there are rumors going around that one player is under suspicion, but this matter of protesting and counter protesting is a nasty business and coaches lodging protests should be certain of their ground and not working upon suspicion. There is nothing that does more to tear down the friendly attitude that is now apparent among Navarro county teams than lodging protests which are later proved unfounded. Better be sure before a protest is placed in the hands of the governing committee.

Very few basketball games have been played during the past few days by Navarro county teams, all practicing hard in an endeavor to perfect team work, and "brewing strong medicine" for their opponents in the tournament.

CORPORATION IS NAMED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Representative Frederick H. Zihlmann of Maryland, Daniel R. Crissinger, former comptroller of the currency, and five officials of the F. H. Smith company, investment security house, were indicted today on a charge of "using the mails to defraud."

Zihlmann and Crissinger were members of the board of directors of the F. H. Smith company, whose affairs have been under investigation by a grand jury for some time. Several days ago, Zihlmann, who is chairman of the house District of Columbia committee, announced he had submitted his resignation as a member of the board.

In addition to the indictments against the seven men, an indictment was returned against the "F. H. Smith company as a corporation."

Sport Writers Banqueted At Hillsboro Wednesday Evening; Organization Was Perfected

By PAUL MOORE

HILLSBORO, Dec. 12.—At a meeting of the sport writers of district 4 held at the Johnson hotel here Wednesday night as the guests of D. W. Campbell, business manager of the Hillsboro Mirror, the Central Texas Sports Writers association was formed, officers elected, and plans for future meetings outlined.

A snappy program was given, featuring a "beauty" contest in which Henry H. (Jinx) Tucker of Waco was adjudged the winner of the trophy, presented by the Hillsboro Mirror. The inscription on the cup was "Mr. Central Texas." An elaborate feed was enjoyed by the writers and guests.

Many humorous jabs, jibes and experiences were related by various guests.

Among those appearing on the program were Tucker, Joe Fields Merrow, Harold V. Ratliff, D. W. Campbell, Burris C. Jackson, the writer, Son Schofer, L. Lawrence Dean, Mc Namara, D. F. Olsen, Lester Jordan and Ward Lusk and others.

Charter members of the Central Texas Sports Writers association are Harold V. Ratliff, sports editor, Cleburne Times-Review; Joe Fields Merrow, sports editor, Hillsboro Mirror; Jinx Tucker, sports editor, Waco News-Tribune; Son Schofer, sports editor, Temple Telegram; Lester Jordan, sports editor, Waco Light; Paul Moore, sports editor, Corsicana Sun, and Burris C. Jackson of Hillsboro.

The following officers were elected: Harold V. Ratliff, president; Paul Moore, vice president; Burris C. Jackson, secretary-treasurer.

The invitation to hold the 1930 annual meeting of the association in Cleburne, extended by J. Lawrence Dean, business manager of the Times-Review was accepted.

Poem Is Dedicated To Corsicana Artist

To Mrs. J. V. Noble's beautiful painting, "Redbud," was dedicated the poem of the same name, written by Mrs. Mamie Downard Peck. Later the poem was set to music by Mr. Marsh, composer of "Fort Worth," and has been sung by Mrs. E. M. Polk, coloratura soprano, on several occasions. Mrs. Peck is being presented today in Dallas at Pen Women's luncheon at the Dallas Country Club with Mrs. Polk, who will sing "Redbud," accompanied by the composer, and Mrs. Noble, to whom the poem is dedicated. The trio left this morning for Dallas.

HARRISON GIVES COOLIDGE FRIENDLY TIP ON CONSPIRACY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—(AP)—A "friendly tip" was offered to Calvin Coolidge by Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, in the senate today not to "fall in with the conspiracy" of republicans associated with President Hoover to run for the senate in the Massachusetts election next year.

Harrison suggested the "conspiracy" was to "bury" Dwight W. Morrow, ambassador to Mexico, and Coolidge in the senate. He said those anxious about the re-nomination of President Hoover regarded these two men as the "serious" contenders for his post.

"But I have too much respect for Mr. Coolidge," said Harrison, "to believe he will follow this subtle plan inaugurated by those close to President Hoover and bury himself in the senate."

OKLAHOMA WOMAN, SHOT BY HUSBAND, DIES IN HOSPITAL

PONCA CITY, Okla., Dec. 10.—(AP)—Mrs. Ruth Shepherd, 23, shot Sunday by her husband, Alva A. Shepherd, died today in a Tonkawa hospital, and a murder charge was filed against Shepherd held in the jail at Newkirk.

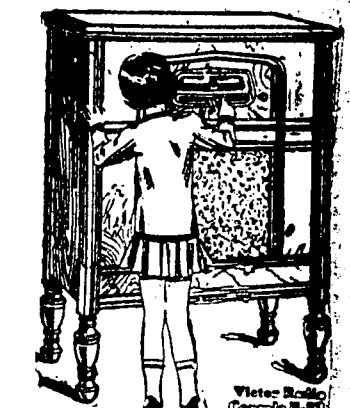

Shepherd attempted to plead guilty, but Judge W. E. Rice refused to accept the plea.

Shepherd said the shooting resulted from a quarrel over what he asserted was cruelty by his wife to his children by a former previous marriage.

PROGRESS IS SHOWN ON HIGHWAY WORK IN CORSICANA DISTRICT

DESIGNATION OF GAP IN EM- HOUSE ROAD BEEN MADE BY COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

The gap in the Corsicana-Emhouse lateral road in Consolidated road district No. 1 from a point four miles north of Corsicana to Emhouse was designated by the commissioners court Monday. It was Tuesday morning. According to W. W. McClendon, county engineer, the new route will cross Briar creek about 300 feet east of the present bridge and will touch Emhouse just east of the depot. The portion of the road from Emhouse north to the Navarro-Ellis county line and the section from the city limits of Corsicana northward for four miles had previously been determined and considerable work has been done on the dump and drainage structures. The F. P. McElwath Construction company is now pouring concrete on North Beaton street and has progressed from the city limits to a point north of the T. and B. V. R.R. Co. tracks and North Beaton street intersection.

Connect With Highway 75. Mr. McClendon stated that the plan had been to complete the connection from South Fifteenth street and West Thirtieth avenue to a point on Highway No. 75 south of Corsicana and that it was probable that bids for this stretch of road would be received in January. This road will connect with the present pavement and will be 18 feet wide. The road will cross the H. and T.R.R. tracks near the brick yards south of Corsicana and will connect with Highway 75 north of Elm Creek, a distance of about three miles. This connection is necessary to comply with the bond issue petition so that money can be used from the bond issue on Highway 75 south to the county line. The driving of piling for the Richmond Creek bridge on Highway 75 is in progress and the driving of concrete piling on the concrete bridge spanning the old and new channels of Chambers Creek north of Corsicana near Rice is also under way.

Southern End Further Advanced. Considerable more progress has been made on dirt work on Highway south of Corsicana than northward, and it is expected that the southern portion will be constructed.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD TUESDAY FOR CORSICANA MAN

Funeral services for Fred Hunt, aged 65, who died suddenly Monday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at his home 1210 West Twelfth avenue, were held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Bristow, 1417 West Park avenue, with burial in the Hamilton cemetery.

Mr. Hunt was a painter and paper hanger and had been in ill health for some time, but was not thought to be in a serious condition. He worked Monday morning, but took suddenly worse and died in a short time. He had resided in Corsicana about 30 years.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Lawrence Hunt, Corsicana; Claude Hunt, Waco; two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Bristow and Mrs. Walter Byrd, both of Corsicana and twelve grandchildren.

The funeral was directed by the Sutherland Funeral Home.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. L. W. Shivers of Wortham, assisted by Rev. J. W. Copeland, pastor of the Corsicana Methodist Protestant church.

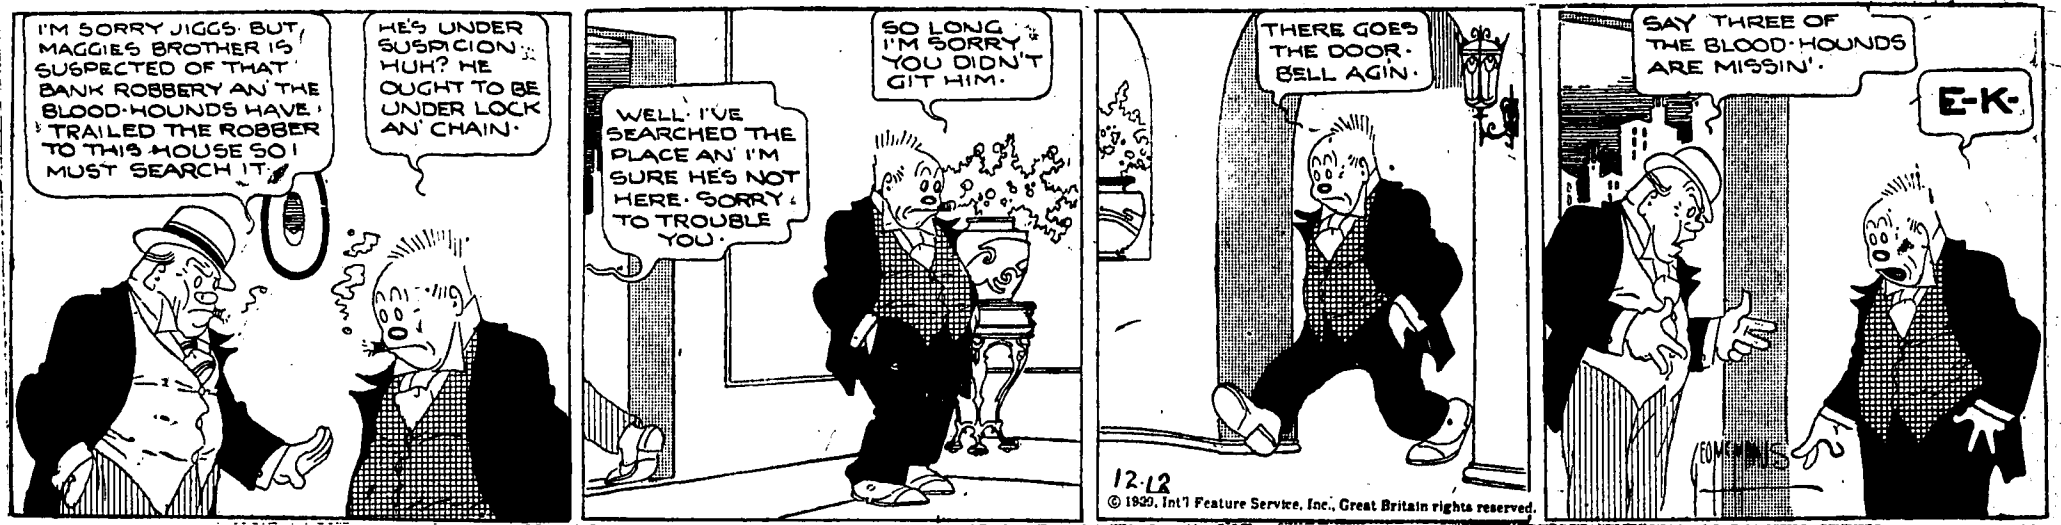

Active pallbearers were L. W. Ashmore, L. Smith, O. W. Wilson, C. W. Byrd, C. R. Stealy and O. Z. Hedrick.

Honorary pallbearers were W. A. Mowlam, Dr. W. W. Carter, Dr. T. A. Miller, A. W. Leverman, Jim Miller, O. P. Lowery, M. Fish, J. C. Miller, Joe Simkins, W. W. Harris and all members of the Corsicana local painters' union.

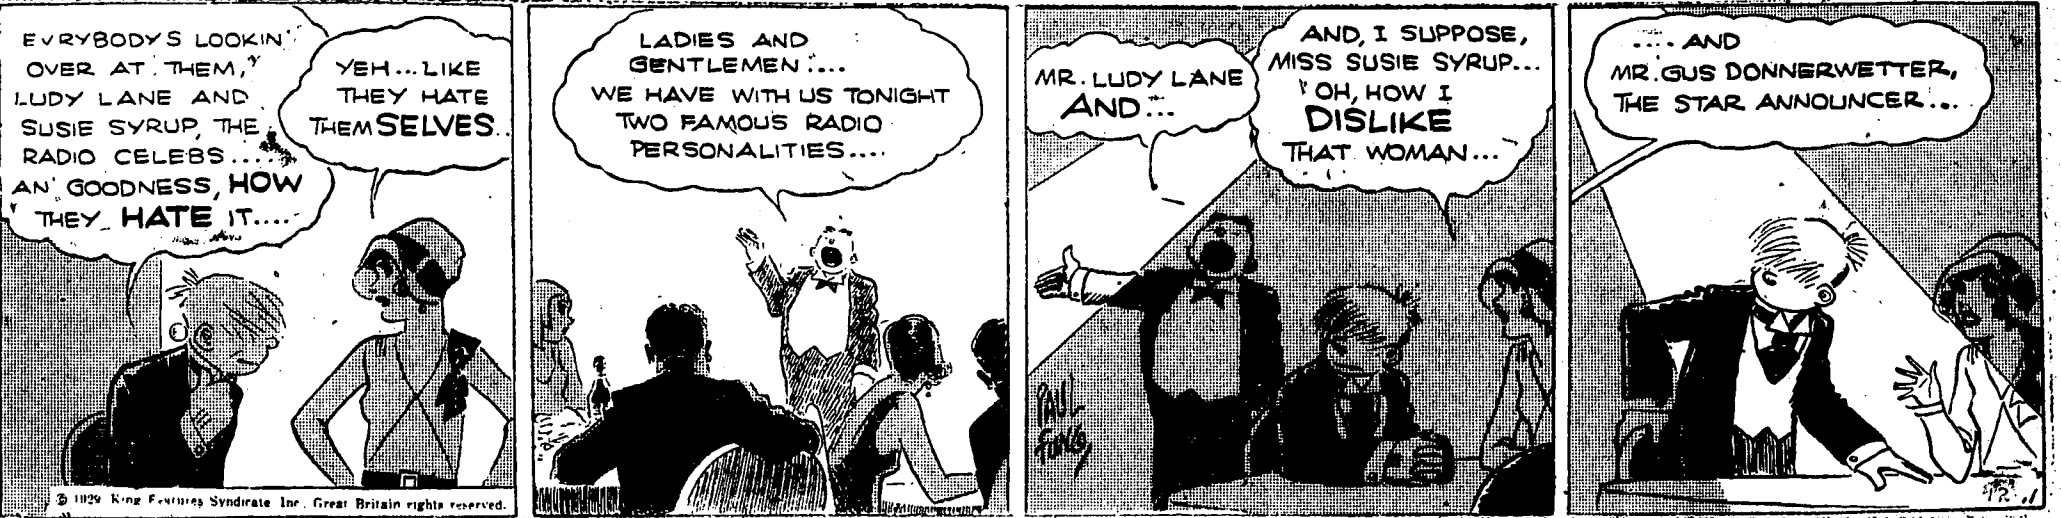

Several months earlier than the northern sector, as much of the dirt work in Chambers Creek bottom has not been started, while practically all of the earth work on the sector south of Corsicana has been completed.

It is hoped by the officials and road enthusiasts that the Corsicana-Emhouse lateral road be completed as soon as possible so that it can be used as an auxiliary for Highway 75 while it is being completed and an effort is to be made within the immediate future to secure the designation of the Emhouse road as a part of Highway 139 from Palestine to Fort Worth via Corsicana, Emhouse and other points. In the event that this sector is designated as a State highway, the highway commission is to be asked to appropriate sufficient money to make the road 18 feet wide from the end of the present four-mile stretch of 18-foot concrete under construction to the county line, a distance of slightly more than eight miles.

SUICIDE PACT IS EVIDENT BUT CAUSE REMAINS MYSTERY

NEPHEW J. P. MORGAN AND SOCIALLY PROMINENT BRIDE FOUND DEAD IN STUDIO

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—(AP)—Henry Grew Crosby, 32, and Mrs. Josephine Rotch Bigelow, 22, a bride, both socially prominent in Boston, were found shot to death in an artist's studio in West 67th street last night in what police said was a suicide pact.

The bodies, fully clothed, were found facing each other on a bed. Crosby's left arm was about the woman's neck, and in his right hand was a .25-calibre pistol. Mrs. Bigelow was shot in the left temple and Crosby in the right.

There were no notes, and while the police were convinced the couple died in a suicide pact they were at a loss to ascribe a motive. Prominently Connected.

Crosby had been registered since Nov. 28 at the Savoy Plaza hotel. He was the former Mrs. Mary Peabody of New York, whom he married in 1922, and his mother, Mrs. S. V. Crosby. He was the son of Stephen Van Rensselaer Crosby, Boston banker, a war veteran and a graduate of Harvard. He recently had returned from Paris. He was a nephew of J. P. Morgan.

Mrs. Bigelow had been visiting friends in New York the last two weeks. She was married last June to Albert S. Bigelow, a graduate student at Harvard and a former Harvard hockey player.

The studio at the Hotel d'Artes in which the shooting occurred was that of Stanley Mortimer, Jr., who said he had met Crosby in Paris five years ago and that Crosby sometimes used his apartment in New York. He described Crosby as a poet.

Bodies are found. He said that Crosby phoned him yesterday afternoon asking for use of the apartment and he had given his consent. Crosby arrived with Mrs. Bigelow shortly afterward. When Mortimer addressed to him at 9:15 last night he found the door locked and bolted and receiving no answer to his ringing, notified the superintendent who forced an entrance. The bodies were found.

In Crosby's pocket the police found a wallet containing $523.75, a visiting card reading "Harry Crosby, 19 Rue de Lille, Paris," and a radiogram addressed to him aboard the steamship Mauretania and dated Nov. 18. It read:

"Cable George when you arrive and where I can telephone you immediately. Am impatiently yours. (Signed) 'JOSEPHINE'."

Crosby's mother is the former Henrietta M. Grew, a sister of the late Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan. At the time of her marriage, Crosby was engaged in the banking business. His wife had been divorced in February, 1922, from Richard R. Peabody, of Dutchess county, New York, and had two children by her first marriage.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of Mrs. J. W. Gwynne, who passed on at her home, 7:15 o'clock, Tuesday night, at 7:15 o'clock, after being stricken with paralysis about 11 o'clock that morning, passing peacefully on that night.

Having lived a close neighbor to this good old lady for almost four and a half years ever since my entrance into Navarro county from our home side by side. Later when our homes were further apart she continued to be the same good old soul. When sorrow and misfortune came she was there to help her through our darkest hour. Her life was a life of cheer and prosperity, and she was there to share it with us. My family all loved her. Anyone could go to her home. She met them at the door in her cheerful manner ever characteristic of her, and when they left she always invited them to come back again. What one family had, the other was welcome to it. We exchanged fruit from our orchards, and she was getting eggs or milk and butter and the not we exchanged. She thinks now as I am out stirring around my home I can see her and hear her call to us. As relatives said the other day, she was just simply good. She and I did not just die. Her death had come to tell people how fortunate we considered each other and the neighborly relationship that existed between us and when that aged husband came forward the other day and said, Mrs. Simmons, I want you to know that me and our relatives appreciate from the depths of our heart all that you and your family have done for us and in going away to make my home elsewhere, I want to carry the remembrance of you all with me. It is a blessed thing to say.

TWENTY PEOPLE INJURED IN WRECK OF TWO-CAR DALLAS AND FT. WORTH INTERURBAN

DALLAS, Dec. 11.—(AP)—Believed to have struck some metallic object on the track, a two-car interurban train, bound from Fort Worth to Dallas jumped the rails two miles west of Dallas last night. Twenty people were injured, four seriously.

Fourteen of the injured were brought to hospitals in Dallas by ambulances rushed to the scene. One woman returned to her home, only slightly injured. Belief the train was thrown from the tracks by some object on the tracks was expressed by Motor-man J. S. Joyce of Handley. The front end of the train rolled down an embankment, while the rear car plowed on for nearly fifty yards further, finally tipping over against the embankment. The tracks were badly torn, the cross ties being almost severed in some places.

At an early hour today, repairs had not been made, and traffic was held up. Buses were substituted soon after the wreck, but stopped running late last night. Most of those injured were Dallas people. Those from outside Dallas were: Ralph N. Smith, Muskogee, Okla.; R. S. McAlister, Greenville; P. J. Turner, Detroit, Texas; Edmund Silverbrand, Dallas; Charles F. Fykes, New Orleans.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. L. D. GULLETT. In the late afternoon of Oct. 29, 1929, the Death Angel came into our midst and took away the spirit of our darling Audrey. She was 26 years, 10 months and 28 days of age.

She was converted and joined the Baptist church at the age of 20 years and lived a Christian life until death came. Audrey was always kind and thoughtful of others, and was loved by all who knew her. She will be greatly missed in the home of her mother and father.

Oh, how we miss her, how hard to give her up, but we must say "Thy will be done." We cannot call her back, but by the grace of God we can go to her, so let's live a life that when God calls us home, we will meet with all our loved ones, to part no more.

Funeral services were conducted by Bro. Bob Evans. She leaves a heart-broken husband, two children, Inez and Billy Joe, mother and father, J. F. Lane, one brother, Jesse Lane, Pursley; six sisters, Mrs. Hatty Wallace, Mabank; Mrs. Edna Dunn, Wortham; Mrs. Elzadie Wallace, Powell; Mrs. Hettie Tanner, Mrs. Johnnie Anderson and Miss Alma Lane, all of Pursley, and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn our loss.

It is very difficult to understand why God should take her from her home and loved ones, but we cannot question what He in His great wisdom does, but we whom He has left may find comfort in the thought that after awhile we may go to meet her in that land where there is no death, no son, or sorrow, but where all is peace and happiness.

Thou art gone our precious darling. Never more canst thou return. Thou shalt sleep a peaceful slumber. Till the resurrection morn. Her troubles are all ended here. Her sufferings are all over, but in that bright and happy home, we will meet to part no more. The clock of life is wound but once. And no man has the power To tell just when the hands will stop. At late or early hour.

Now is thine only time you own, Live, love, toil wit' her will, Place no faith in tomorrow. The clock may then be still. Lord, give us strength our loss to bear. And lead us in the heavenly way. Oh, may we meet our darling there In realms of everlasting day. Written by her sister, ALMA LANE.

that the same cordial relationship existed between us when she passed away as when you first came along us. And we all are proud to claim you as our friends and neighbors. I replied to him that I wanted to say the same of them. I thought that my life had not been lived in vain. We feel today that she is communicating with her blessed Savior. Her very life was her religion. She was good to everyone. May we all say:

Sleep on, dear mother, sleep, Till time shall be no more; While we our vigils watch On Time's uneven shore. MRS. E. H. SIMMONS.

Mrs. Victor P. Arnold of Dallas held an infant baby in her arms. The baby was uninjured while the mother suffered a bruised back. Two men who were motoring nearby saw and reported the wreck. They said the train was travelling at a high rate of speed when it jumped the tracks. They immediately went to the nearest telephone and summoned ambulances.

Dangerous broken wires, the darkness, and long lines of curious motorists hampered the rescue work. Within half hour after the crash, motorists found it impossible to drive within a mile of Irwindell, near where the train was wrecked and several were sent out from Dallas was unable to reach the scene.

About forty passengers were riding the two cars. Those who could through unscathed said it was almost miraculous none was killed. The inside of the car, they reported, was literally torn to pieces. A rock placed by children on the rails was suggested by Andrew J. Rowe, assistant superintendent of transportation, as the cause of the wreck.

A woman who lived near Irwindell, said she saw several children playing on the track a few minutes before the crash.

MUCH LIQUOR IS SEIZED IN RAID EAST CORSICANA

County officers staged one of the biggest liquor raids in several years Tuesday afternoon when 450 gallons of liquor were seized in East Corsicana. The cache was discovered by Deputy Sheriff J. M. Westbrook and Jack Floyd about two o'clock and the moving of the eight barrels to the county jail was completed about 6 o'clock. Several officers and workers labored for several hours removing the liquor from its underground site.

CAUSE FATAL FIRE IN NEW YORK STUDIO SOUGHT BY OFFICIALS

TEN MEMBERS OF A TALKING PICTURE COMPANY LOST LIVES IN BLAZE

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—(AP)—Authorities sought to learn from survivors today the cause of the fire in the Manhattan film studio in which 10 members of a talking picture company lost their lives and eighteen were injured.

Four of the dead were chorus girls in the cast of a song and dance revue being filmed by Pathe Sound Studios, Inc. The dead: EUFFORD, EDNA, chorus girl. PORTER, CATHERINE, chorus girl. SPARKS, JOLA, chorus girl. BYRNE, NORINE, chorus girl. BISHOFF, JOSEPH, make up man. KOERBLE, CHARLES, electrician. KRAMER, CARL, electrician. NUSSMAN, ROBERT, electrician. QUINN, JACK, property man. WILSON, ERNEST, bookkeeper. Two theories for the cause of the fire were advanced.

Witnesses told officials a glowing spark was seen to drop from the carbon of a Svinglow arc-lamp a moment before a mass of scenery and drapes burst into flames. They said the burning particle fell into a velvet drop.

Peter C. Spence, chief of the fire department, said he believed the fire probably was the result of a cigarette. He said an order for the installation of a sprinkler system in the old studio building which is located in Harlem at Park avenue and 134th street had been issued last May, but because not more than five reels of film were stored in the building at one time the department was powerless to enforce the order.

The studio, once the training quarters of Jack Johnson, former heavyweight boxing champion, was converted from a dance hall and skating rink into a motion picture studio fifteen years ago.

EXCELLENT WORK IN ERADICATION OF TICKS IN FREESTONE

TEAGUE, Dec. 12.—(Sp)—According to F. J. Sheets, supervising inspector for the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas, in charge of tick eradication work in Freestone county, Texas, at the beginning of the work, April 1, 1928, 1,187 herds or 13,467 head of cattle in the county infested with ticks. While in November, 1929, there are only 7 herds or 14 cattle found to be infested. Mr. Sheets is holding, however, 105 herds or 1,769 cattle for another dipping.

Mr. Sheets says that all vats where there are no ticky herds will be discontinued during the winter months or until March 1, 1930, while all vats where cattle are infested will be dipped every 21 days instead of 14 as heretofore until March 1, 1930, when the 14 day schedule will be resumed.

MULL AND MUSLIN AND WIDE BRIMMED STRAWS DUE WITH LONG SKIRTS

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—(AP)—Those long, dotted Swiss dresses, wide brimmed straws—how Young America snickers! But they're coming back! The Cotton Textile Institute of American Farm Bureau Federation says so. Mull and muslin (Grandmother used to think there was nothing much better for a dress) are returning. Frocks of these materials already are in vogue at Florida resorts, the farmers' wives were told today by Miss Susan Bates of New York. Cotton may not sound so ritzy to young women who speak in terms of chiffon, silk and such, but the institute revealed one could pay good prices for cotton as well. A simple street dress had $36 price tag and, Miss Bates said, $125 for an evening dress is really nothing. Styles determine the price, the institute pointed out, cotton gowns created by well known designers commanding their price even as those in silk.

The uneven hemline was not much in evidence, but the dresses were long. Skirts for afternoon and evening were ankle length; sport and street dresses hung three to four inches below the knees.

BILLY BOY, WE MISS YOU. (In memory of Billy Bedford, who died two years ago, Dec. 12.) Billy Boy, we did not know before you went away. How long and lonely the hours in And the nights could be so dear, And loneliness could fill a year. Before you went away, we did not know that we would miss you so. We miss your smile, your kiss, your evening song. We were happy when the twilights were so long.

We did not know the trees would sigh for you, And when the birds, they miss you, too. And your friends, they look sad today. Because you left us—just slipped away.

Billy Boy, three beautiful prayers you said. We kissed you goodnight and tucked you in bed. You gave him your hand, all was peaceful and quiet. You slipped away with Jesus, in the stillness of night.

We cannot understand why you went away. To be with Jesus, always at play, Before you left your little room. We were happy when we did not know the pain of gloom.

Billy Boy, your memory is a guiding star. To lead us on to the land afar. Where dwells our blessed Lord so dear. Who soothes the heart, and dries the tear.

So while we dwell in this world so fair, To do God's will is our daily prayer. May we hold fast to His pierced land. While He leads us on to a better land.

So dear Lord, we pray before we close our eyes. To meet our loved one, and rest at Jesus' feet. May we lead some soul to Thee, and make forever The world more fair and sweet.

'Tis not for us to understand, God rules the world, He has His plans. May we stretch up to heights brave tollers have trod. Somewhere is recompense, everywhere God.

THREE SITES WILL BE PROPOSED FOR TEXAS PRISON SYSTEM MUST BE CENTRALIZED

AUSTIN, Dec. 11. (AP)—The prison centralization commission will recommend three sites to the legislature for construction of the proposed new central penitentiary plant.

There will be two minority recommendations. One proposing rehabilitation of the walls at Huntsville, and the second supporting the Imperial farm, twenty miles south of Houston, for the new prison. The four members not concurring with the majority, which favors a site within twenty miles of Austin, the state capital, were divided two and two.

Representatives A. H. King of Throckmorton and E. T. Murphy of Livingston have filed a report suggesting Imperial farm as the most feasible for concentration, advised by the attorney general, provides that each train must have a minimum crew of four. In some instances of one car motor trains, the train is manned only by a conductor and motorman.

Letters were sent to Missouri Pacific, Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Chicago, Rock Island and Gulf, Panhandle and Santa Fe, and St. Louis Southwestern.

RAILROADS MUST USE FULL CREWS ON EVERY TRAIN

AUSTIN, Dec. 11.—(AP)—The State Railroad Commission today sent letters to officials of six Texas railways asserting those roads were violating the full crew law as interpreted by the attorney general's department. "The attention of the commission has been directed to the fact that in some instances you are operating motor passenger cars on your lines in violation of the full crew law as interpreted by the attorney general," the letter stated. "This is to advise that the commission will take immediate steps to see that this law is enforced." The full crew law, as interpreted

The commission has been called to meet here Friday to take final action with reference to its recommendations to the legislature.

The commission is composed of the nine members of the present board and nine legislators. The prison board members are unanimously behind the majority recommendation that the prison be built near Austin. Four of the nine legislators are opposed to centralization near Austin, and the attitude of one, Representative Coke R. Stevenson of Junction, is not definitely known. Stevenson had not attended a meeting of the commission recently.

and Senator Nat Patton of Crockett and Representative Harry N. Graves of Georgetown want to rehabilitate the walls at Huntsville, where the main penitentiary has been for 80 years.

The Huntsville site is the second choice of King and Murphy, however, for they urge in their report that "in case the legislature concludes that the Imperial farm is not the proper place to build a new prison, the enlargement and modernization of the plant at Huntsville be undertaken," expressing the opinion this could be accomplished with the expenditure of less than $1,000,000.

Senator Edgar Witt of Waco, who drafted the majority report, added an exhibit showing that during the past twenty years the system cost approximately $10,000,000 in excess of the revenues derived therefrom and quoting E. B. Williams, state reclamation engineer, to the effect cost of reclaiming the overflow lands of the present-owned properties would be approximately $2,000,000. Williams said this expenditure would not protect the repleve farm of 4,429 acres, giving it as his opinion it is not feasible to attempt to reclaim this acreage.
